

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT	11
INTRODUCTION	13
CHAPTER ONE:
AWARENESS AND THE HUMAN PERSON: THE NATURE OF
INTERRELATEDNESS – A MULTIDISCIPLINARY INQUIRY	19
1.1. The Faculty of Awareness and Its Attributes	20
1.1.1. Awareness and Consciousness	22
1.1.2. Awareness and Witnessing	26
1.2. The Human Person and Awareness: A Theological Perspective	29
1.2.1. The Person in Theology and in Human Sciences	32
1.2.2. God-Person Relationship: A Theological Reflection	38
1.2.2.1. Bereavement and Relationship with God	44
1.2.3. Affirmation and Negation of Values in Relation to Self	47
1.2.3.1. Bereavement and the Dignity of the Person	49
1.2.4. Interpersonal Relationships: Values and Negations
in Relation to Others	51
1.2.4.1. Bereavement and Interpersonal Relationships	53
1.2.5. Human Person and the World: Values and Negations
in Relation to the World	54
1.2.5.1. World-Human Relationship during
Bereavement	57
1.3. The Structure of Awareness and Its Relation to Values	58
1.3.1. Values as Category of Consciousness	62
1.3.2. The Structure of Values and Its Features	64
1.3.3. Function of Values in the Bereavement Process	67
1.4. Theological Analysis of Awareness and the Human
Person: Findings	70

CHAPTER TWO:
AWARENESS AND TIME: THE HISTORY OF TEMPORALITY
AND THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF TIME 73

2.1. Time and Temporality 73

 2.1.1. The History of Time and the Awareness of Duration 75

 2.1.2. Scientific Notion of Time 90

 2.1.3. Theological Implications of Time 96

2.2. Awareness and Temporality 102

 2.2.1. Values and Situational Reactions in Relation to Time 106

 2.2.2. “Everything has a Time!”: The Experience of Time
 in Bereavement 111

2.3. A Pilgrimage to Final Destiny: A Theological Reflection on Life and Eternity 121

2.4. The Impact of Time on Human Awareness 126

CHAPTER THREE:
THE MULTIFACETED PHENOMENON OF BEREAVEMENT:
AN INTERDISCIPLINARY INQUIRY 129

3.1. The Experience of Bereavement 129

 3.1.1. Symptomatology of Bereavement 130

 3.1.2. Terminological Complexity 134

 3.1.3. Bereavement Experience in the Modern World 136

3.2. Psychological Dimension of Bereavement: Theories of Bereavement and Their Consequences 138

 3.2.1. The Freudian Theory of Mourning 139

 3.2.1.1. The Evolutionary Theory of Grief by John Bowlby 141

 3.2.2. Stage Theories of Bereavement 144

 3.2.2.1. Five-Stage Theory of Kübler-Ross (1969) 145

 3.2.2.2. Bereavement Care Theory of Parkes (1986) 147

 3.2.3. The Task Theory of Worden (1982, 1991, 2009) 148

3.2.4. Theory of Continuing Bonds	150
3.2.4.1. The Future of the Theory of Continuing Bonds ...	153
3.2.5. Dual Process Model (DPM) of Grief	154
3.3. Social Dimension of Bereavement	156
3.3.1. Continuity as Social Remembrance	157
3.3.2. Unbridgeable Distances in Bereavement	159
3.3.3. Social Change and Bereavement	162
3.4. Religious Dimension of Bereavement	164
3.4.1. The Construction of Meaning and the Question of Transformation	166
3.4.2. Faith, Religious Rituals and Experience of Solace	167
3.4.2.1. The Jewish Death Rituals and Their Effects on Bereavement	169
3.4.2.2. The Christian Rituals at the Phase of Death and Bereavement	172
3.4.2.3. Death in Islam and the Concept of Bereave- ment	176
3.4.2.4. Death and Bereavement Rituals in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Jainism	178
3.5. Religious Bereavement and Psychology of Grief	182
3.6. Moral and Ethical Dimension of Bereavement	191
3.7. Findings and Concerns about Bereavement Experiences	197

CHAPTER FOUR:

THE FACES OF DEATH IN DAILY LIFE: THE NARRATIONS

OF THE BEREAVED	201
4.1. Bereavement Narratives as Heritage of Lived Life	202
4.1.1. Bereavement Narratives as Sources of Scientific Knowledge	203
4.2. Components of Bereavement Narrative Analysis	206
4.2.1. The Determination of Categories	209
4.3. Analysis of Bereavement Reports	213
4.3.1. The Sudden Death of the Husband	213

4.3.1.1. The Factors of Awareness and Bereavement in the Narration	215
4.3.2. The Grief Reaction of Husband at the Death of Wife	219
4.3.2.1. Influencing Factors Found in the Narration	220
4.3.3. Death of the Only Son	223
4.3.3.1. A Discussion on Bereavement Reactions	224
4.3.4. Death of a Brother and Its Consequences	226
4.3.4.1. A Discussion on Bereavement Reactions	229
4.3.5. An Unattended Coffin Moves about	230
4.3.5.1. The Elements of Awareness and Their Impact ...	232
4.3.6. The Sudden Death of the Son Changes the Life of a Mother Forever	234
4.3.6.1. The Factors of Awareness and Bereavement in the Narration	237
4.3.7. Bereavement Narration of an Elderly Widower	240
4.3.7.1. Features of Narration and Their Impact	241
4.3.8. A Grief Narration Crowned as a Literary Masterpiece	243
4.3.8.1. A Grief Observed : A Short Summary	245
4.3.8.2. The Elements of Awareness in A Grief Observed : An Analytical Illustration	248
Short Summary	252

CHAPTER FIVE:

FACTORS ASSOCIATED WITH LOSS AND BEREAVEMENT:

A REFLECTIVE EVALUATION	255
--------------------------------------	------------

5.1. The Relationship between the Bereaved and the Dear Departed	256
5.2. The Bereaved and the Relationship with the Environment	257
5.3. The Reconciliation of the Bereaved with the Departed	259
5.4. Grateful Recollection of Memories as Undeniable Source of Consolation	262
5.5. The Strong Pathway of Role Play	263

5.6. Emotional and Physical Turbulences and Their Recurrence	265
5.7. The Sense of the Unfathomable	267
5.8. Grief as the Shadow of Postulated Grief in the Future – The Dimension of Time	272
5.9. What Do the Bereaved Unfold for Us through Their Narrations?	274
CONCLUSION AND FURTHER PERSPECTIVES	281
BIBLIOGRAPHY	287